

Máté Kormos

Education

- 2020 – PhD in Statistics, Leiden University
Supervisor: Stéphanie van der Pas and Aad van der Vaart
- 2018 – 2020 MPhil in Econometrics, Tinbergen Institute Amsterdam (TIA)
Thesis: Kernel Density Estimation on Homomorphically Encrypted Data
Supervisor: Charles S. Bos
- 2016 – 18 MA in Economics (with distinction, US-Hungarian degree), Central European University (CEU)
Thesis: Paired 2×2 Factorial Design for Treatment Effect Identification and Estimation in the Presence of Paired Interference and Noncompliance
Supervisor: László Mátyás with support from Róbert P. Lieli
- 2013 – 16 BA in Applied Economics (with distinction), Corvinus University of Budapest
Thesis: Binary Modelling of the Labour Force Participation of People with Special Needs

Experience

- 2019 autumn TA of Statistics and Principles of Programming in Econometrics (Profs. Spreij and Bos), TIA
- 2018 summer Organiser and lecturer of Econometrics in Julia unofficial block course, CEU
- 2017 summer RA, CEU MicroData (Profs. Szeidl and Koren): regression design and implementation, research programming in Python and Stata
- 2015 spring TA of Macroeconomics, Corvinus University of Budapest

Software

Julia, Python, MATLAB, Stata, L^AT_EX, ubuntu, git

Languages

Hungarian (native), English (fluent), Italian (basic)

Awards

- 2018–2019 TIA Full Scholarship (€23,760)
- 2016–2018 CEU Full Scholarship (€5,000)
- 2018 Recipient of Stanislav Vidovic Prize for Best Thesis, CEU

Last update

September 8, 2020